Door levers add personality, elegance

ASHLEY NORTON expands its collection of handcrafted architectural hardware with five new lever styles. Joining the Signature Classic Leverset Collection are the traditional Edward, classic Colonial, transitional Cara, sleek Alessa, and curvy Joan. Adding personality and elegance to door and entryways, the ergonomic styles are available as individual levers or as lever sets for interior or exterior use. Ashley Norton levers are forged from premium brass or art-grade bronze. ashleynorton.com

Silica-free products improve health safety

NEOLITH unveils two innovations: a silica-free product line and Neolith WhiteSands, a new model that debuts with a new texture. The Neolith for a New Era product line does not contain silica, not even residual. This closes the circle encompassing the entire value chain, looking after everyone involved in the material handling and manufacturing process and safeguarding people. Neolith WhiteSands is manufactured with a new digital technology, offering an exclusive texture. neolith.com

Decorative hardware gives modern look

TOP KNOBS elevates its product range with the addition of the Garrison Collection. Serving as a symbol of modern sophistication, Garrison offers four suites of knobs, pulls and appliance pulls and two suites of universal backplates, each piece embodying the essence of industrial elegance. Each knob, pull and appliance pull showcases a diverse structured pattern, while the backplates are available in a range of sizes and finishes, which offers homeowners remarkable versatility. topknobs.com

Lighting collaboration, solution boost spaces

LODES announces a lighting collaboration with Ron Arad and its latest lighting solution, Random Cloud. Cono di Luce marries the company's technical know-how with Arad's artistic flair, which is known for its iconic industrial pieces. Conceived by Chia-Ying Lee, Random Cloud is an impactful, contemporary play on the archetype of a chandelier, and it is an evolution of the brand's Random Solo pendant, now connecting multiple glass pendants to a central canopy. lodes.com

Pearlescent finish celebrates new year

TRUE RESIDENTIAL debuts its 2024 Color of the Year: Champagne, a soft gold finish with metallic elements and subtle pink tones. Inspired by the timeless allure of rare sparkling vintages, the new color's pearlescent appearance and glossy hue exudes an inviting glow. Champagne melds with most palettes and aesthetics, simultaneously providing a sense of luxurious comfort and a bubbling sense of excitement. Rich yet nuanced, the new hue offers extensive design versatility. true-residential.com
